

Couples living with aphasia needed for research study

We would like to invite you to participate in a University of Washington research study.

We want to:

- Learn how aphasia has impacted your relationship as a couple
- Understand the strategies you have used to maintain and grow your relationship
- Know about the tools you use to support your life and relationship

If you and your partner or spouse are interested in participating in this study. We would like to conduct an in-person 1-hour couples interview. Each participant will receive a $20 gift card for their participation in the interview.

If you are interested, please contact Dawn Sakaguchi-Tang at (206) 659-6944 or email at dawnsaka@uw.edu for more information. Thank you.
